University of Illinois Laboratory High School (or “Uni High”) seeks to spark the creative fervor and high aspirations of talented young people, to inspire them to excellence, to challenge them through traditional and experimental strategies, to ignite their potential for active and responsible involvement in the adult world, and to positively influence the larger educational community.

School & Community
Uni High is a public laboratory school enrolling approximately 320 students. Founded in 1921, the 5-year high school is located on the University of Illinois campus in Urbana-Champaign. This East Central Illinois community has a population of about 122,000, including 40,000 students.

The student-to-teacher ratio is 9 to 1, and the average class size is 15, allowing faculty and administrators to know each student individually.

Admission
Admission to Uni High is highly competitive. We admit approximately 25% of students based on their SSAT score, academic record, and application, which includes personal references and essays. Admission decisions are made without regard to home school district or affiliation with the University of Illinois. Uni High strives to build a class of incoming students that is inclusive and representative of the surrounding communities.

Subfreshmen
Most students enter Uni High as subfreshmen, which is an accelerated 7th- and 8th-grade year. The academic courses taken during this year become part of our 5-year honors high school program. Grades earned in subfreshman math and foreign languages are shared with colleges to reflect course sequencing in these 2 disciplines, but these grades are not included in the student’s GPA.

Student Life
Uni High offers many opportunities for learning and involvement outside of the classroom through clubs and activities, athletics, fine and performing arts, and community service.

» Uni High has a no-cut athletic program that allows all students to participate in competitive athletics. Approximately 68% of our students play on interscholastic teams in IHSA-sanctioned sports.
» More than 60% of our students are involved in music, drama, and fine arts programs.
» Our students can choose from more than 40 clubs and activities.
» Our students participate in service programs ranging from peer tutoring to Habitat for Humanity.
» Students have an open campus all day, every day. They learn that with freedom comes responsibility.
» Each year Uni High has an Agora Days (open market) program that invites students, parents, alumni, faculty, and community members to take over Uni High classrooms, offering classes in new and unusual subjects.
Excellence Without AP
Our laboratory mission is focused on developing an innovative curriculum and creating an environment that fosters the intellectual independence and creativity of our students. In support of that goal, all academic courses at Uni High are honors courses. Faculty members are encouraged to try new methods of instruction and to alter course content. Because of our mission, Uni High does not offer courses that follow the Advanced Placement program of the College Board.

Curriculum Organization & Credits
The curriculum is organized across 8 areas: English, social studies, science, mathematics, foreign languages, fine arts, computer science, and physical education/health. In addition to the required courses in each area, students have access to extensive elective offerings in the core academic subjects.

The following are required:

- English—4 units
