Winners receive a gift certificate for $75, $50, and $25 for the first, second, and third best presentations respectively.

• First Place: Robert Gao for his presentation on deep fakes
• Second place: Tristen Ting for his presentation on open AI
• Third place: Sarisa Chapsilp for her presentation on AI algorithms and attention spans

FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT

Christopher Bannister Memorial Award
This award is given in memory of the late Christopher F. Bannister, a member of the Uni High Class of 1955. He was a master harpsichord builder who believed that Uni High was a unique and ideal place in which to grow and stretch one’s mind in many directions while still allowing one to specialize in particular interests. According to Mr. Bannister, “There’s something ‘immediate’ about our society—learning the discipline of almost anything has fallen out favor. But be it in music or photography or anything else, subtlety and appreciation only come from self-discipline and study. And it’s very rewarding if you make that effort.”

2022-2023 Math League High School Contest was managed by Uni’s Math Department, with the enthusiastic help of Mrs. Noh, a Uni parent who initiated Uni’s Math League participation. More than 35 students have participated in at least one of the 6 monthly rounds, with about 30 participants per round. Based on the combined scores on the 6 rounds, Uni High earned 1st in the state.

Students earning distinctions based on high cumulative scores: Navid Tajkhorkhishad, Jaewoo Park, Bruce Tang, Anthony Yang, Jonathan Chen, Robert Gao, Renee Wang, Jonathan Ouyang, Grace To, Jeana To, and Sarah Guo.

Cumulative perfect scores with 1st in the state distinctions: Shreyas Singh and Maya Viswanathan

Middle School Math Contests

AMC 8. All subbies competed in the exam. Max Wang and Anthony Yang had highest scores and placed in the top 5% nationally.

MathCounts. The Uni High team had the maximum number of 12 subbie students compete in the Chapter contest: Max Wang, Daniel Lee, Anthony Yang, Yuto Inoue, Shlok Choudhary, James Yan, DJ Wang, Linden Peters, Krish Sundareswar, Emma Tong, Ruijing Tang, and Sophia Chen. Four subbies qualified for the State contest: Daniel Lee, Shlok Choudhary, Max Wang, and Anthony Yang.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Senior Athlete of the Year
- Male Athlete of the Year – Teo Chemla
- Female Athlete of the Year – Kate Ahmar

Tom Jolly “Spirit of Uni” Award

Tom Jolly was a local hospital chaplain who was very active in community fine arts and athletic programs. He was the father of Uni alums Michelle Jolly, Class of 1984, and Doug Jolly, Class of 1990. This award should be given to a graduating senior who, during his/her tenure at Uni, has exhibited outstanding moral, ethical, and spiritual qualities. The student should also have worked to strengthen the Uni community by bringing various groups, clubs, or populations together in order to improve the community and understanding among the various elements of the Uni community and/or with groups outside of Uni. The recipient’s activities should have been as broad as possible during his/her time at Uni in order to reflect the full scope of the “Uni experience.”

- Wes Lu

Athletic Director’s Award

The Athletic Director’s Award is awarded to the Uni High senior who, in the opinion of the Athletic Director, has made a spirited contribution to the Uni High Athletic Department as a model community member and participant.

- Mikayla Blanke

The Dedicated Science Student Award
  The recipient of this award is a junior or senior selected based on his/her leadership qualities, independence of thought, ability to solve problems, good laboratory and study skills, high scholastic rank and desire for a career in science or a science-related field.
  • Anuprova Bhowmik

The Rising Science Student Award (The David)
  This award recognizes a junior who demonstrates excellence in all science classes and who has shown exceptional skill in laboratory experimentation, and who possesses the qualities requisite to a future career in sciences. We dub this The David award in honor of David Stone and David Bergandine who were beloved Uni science instructors for over 30 years. One of their goals was to provide Uni students with unique experiences in the sciences that encouraged wonderment and fostered interest in a career in the sciences.
  • Aya Surheyao

Philip Anderson Award
  Philip Anderson was a member of the University High School Class of 1940. He won the Nobel Prize in Physics in 1977 for “fundamental theoretic investigation of the electronic structure of magnetic and disordered systems.” This award is given to a student for exceptional performance through their science career at Uni, outstanding performance academically and participation in science-related extracurricular activities.
  • Navid Tajkhorshid

SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

James Tobin Excellence in the Social Sciences Award
  The James Tobin Award for Excellence in the Social Sciences was established in honor of Uni graduate James Tobin, an economist who won the Nobel Prize in 1981. WORLD & CLASSICAL LANGUAGES DEPARTMENT

Emma Koenker World and Classical Language Award
  Emma Koenker, a member of Uni High Class of 1998, died on August 16, 1995, as the result of a brain tumor. Although her time at Uni was brief, she left an indelible impression on Uni’s student body and faculty. The University High School World and Classical Languages
Department has named an award in her honor. The Emma Koenker Award is presented each year to an outstanding foreign language student who has maintained a consistently high level of academic performance and who has a spirit of adventure and an eagerness to try something new, is enthusiastic about language learning, carries their enthusiasm for language learning beyond the classroom, is caring, thoughtful and supportive of their classmates, demonstrates an appreciation for culture, and has actively participated in extra-curricular activities related to foreign language study. This year, we selected two students from Spanish classes who reflect Emma’s love of international culture and her profound respect for the unique qualities of all inhabitants of the global community.

Illinois State Seal of Biliteracy
A public school district or nonpublic school may establish the State Seal of Biliteracy program to recognize high school graduates who have attained a high level of proficiency in English and in one or more other foreign, or world, languages. This recognition must be designated on a student’s transcript and high school diploma with a receipt of the State Seal of Biliteracy, provided that all conditions and requirements for the program have been met.

- Jeana To

PARENT TEACHER STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Colin Thorn Award
The Parent Faculty Organization established this award in honor of Colin Thorn, who served for many years as an unpaid volunteer coach of the Uni High boys’ soccer team and is remembered for his outstanding dedication and service to the school.

- Mary Kate Arend
- Annie McManus

Sue Kovacs Award
The University Laboratory High School Parent-Faculty Organization has established an award in honor of ex-Assistant principal Sue Kovacs. The award is given annually to a person who embodies the enthusiastic spirit of service which Ms. Kovacs displayed on a daily basis. Many in the Uni community still remember Susan Kovacs with a strong sense of admiration. Sue was respected for her firmness in Uni management and loved for her deep commitment to the school. Sue Kovacs cared about Uni students as much as anyone could. Sue demanded a lot of herself at Uni and she demanded the best of Uni students.

- Sheree Denham

STUDENT SERVICES OFFICE

U.S. Presidential Scholars Competition
The U.S. Presidential Scholars Program was established in 1964, by executive order of the President, to recognize and honor some of our nation’s most distinguished graduating high school seniors. Each year, up to 141 students are named as Presidential Scholars, one of the nation’s highest honors for high school students.

UNI HIGH AWARDS

Wylde Q Chicken Award
The Thespian Society’s outreach to the fifth graders was a game-changer. It generated a positive impression of Uni and showed outside the box thinking.

- Wes Lu and Theodore Kemna

The Megan Flynn Award for Critical Thinking and Analytical Insight
This award was created in honor and memory of Megan Flynn (Uni class of 1996) following her death in 2021. This award recognizes a senior at Uni High who has exemplified exceptional analytical insight or critical thinking in school or extra-curricular activities, or both.

- Emma Donnini

June Mank Award
June Mank was the bookkeeper for University High School from 1972-1988. She served on the Champaign City Council from 1979 until 2001. In her spare time she drove cancer patients for treatment, meals on wheels, and served on various neighborhood committees, plus church activities. This award is given to a student who most shares June’s supportive role in the interest of Uni High. The student may have a long-term commitment to a single project, a short-term commitment to a variety of projects, or is engaged in service to the school without being asked.

- Anuprova Bhowmik, Hozaifa Bhutta and Theodore Kemna

Matt Wilhelm “Service With A Smile” Award
Matt Wilhelm, Class of 1999, was a dedicated member of the Uni student body who was constantly helping others. No matter what he was doing, from serving on Student Council to assisting fellow students with their homework, Matt always contributed with little fanfare and with an unforgettable smile. Each year, the Matt Wilhelm Memorial “Service with a Smile” award shall go to the member of the Uni student body who, like Matt, went above and beyond the call of duty to serve the Uni community.
